

MCDCA Adds to Its Menu of Professional Development Opportunities!

These opportunities are open to all! Please advertize to your members. Thank you.

O*NET for Career Advisors is the latest in professional development programs designed for you. This is a self-paced, online program that will take you into the world of O*NET. You will use videos and other activities to see the benefits of using O*NET information. Earn 3.5 continuing education credits.

Hidden Gems is another self-paced, online program earning you 12 clock hours of credit. Here you will use several interactive web tools that will show you new ways of identifying interests and skills, finding information on occupations, improving job skills, finding education and training programs, finding and landing a job, and making a career transition. This program has been pre-approved by the Center for Credentialing and Education.

Visit the Professional Development Section at www.mdcareers.org to register for these professional development opportunities.
